

Home Made

Have your cake, muffins, and tea biscuit home-made. They will be fresher, cleaner, more tasty and wholesome.

Royal Baking Powder helps the house wife to produce at home, quickly and economically, fine and tasty cake, the raised hot-biscuit, puddings, the frosted layer-cake, crisp cookies, crullers, crusts and muffins, with which the ready-made food found at the bake-shop or grocery does not compare.

Royal is the greatest of bake-day helps.

Rev. R. W. Van Schoick, D. D., will give his lecture "The Book and the Land," at the M. E. church Friday evening, October 21; admission 10 and 15 cents; proceeds for the new parsonage.

The subject at the M. E. church next Sunday morning will be "Christianity in Its Adaptation to Human Needs," in the evening, "Jesus: The Way—To Pardon, Happiness, Holiness, and to Heaven."

The sale of reserved seats for the Coterie lecture course will begin Saturday, October 15, at Longwell Bros' store. The first lecture, that by Dr. Lee McClester on "Tolstoi," will be given October 25.

The marriage of Miss Harriet Hale Bradley to Dr. George Frank Young took place Wednesday noon at the home of Mr. William S. Bradley, in the presence of near relatives of the contracting parties and a few of the most intimate friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Walker, and after congratulations had been extended an elaborate wedding dinner was served. Out of town guests who were present included Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Young of Paw Paw, parents of Dr. Young, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Van Auker and Miss Josie Van Auker of Hartford, Miss Harriet Wyman and Messrs. Merle Young and Hubbard Bradley of Ann Arbor. The newly wedded pair left at 4:30 for the East and will visit Washington, Philadelphia and other points of interest. They will return in about two weeks and go to housekeeping in Dr. Mater's residence, 317 Huron street.—South Haven Tribune. The True Northerner extends congratulations.

Mr. Robert W. Smith and Miss Clara Stearns were married at 2 o'clock Wednesday, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. G. A. Stearns. Only relatives and a very few intimate friends were present. At the appointed hour, the bride and groom entered the parlor, attended by Jos. Brown of Chicago and Miss Allene Wyrang of Paw Paw. The bride wore a beautiful gray traveling dress. They were united by Rev. A. W. Mumford, using a pretty ring ceremony. After congratulations, light refreshments were served. The happy couple left that evening for a week in Chicago. Many beautiful gifts were received. Mr. Smith and his bride are two of Paw Paw's well known and popular young people, and their many friends wish them well. Those present from out of town were Jos. W. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Dusen of Chicago, W. M. Bills of Dowagiac, Silas Rawson, Miss Ella Smith and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White of Decatur, Merle Sumney of Faulkton, S. Dak., Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Engle and Mrs. Ray and daughter of Lawton.

Judge Winsor of Marshall, general counsel of the A. O. U. W., was in town yesterday, taking depositions for use before the board of trustees of the order in the matter of the insurance on the life of the late S. E. Munger. He had carried $2,000 of insurance for years, and a few days before his death applied for a reduction to $1,000. The beneficiaries refused to accept the smaller amount, claiming Mr. Munger was mentally incompetent, and further that the change in policy was never completed. A. L. Free represents the claimants, and it is probable the matter will get into the courts.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures cold and grip, but prevents them from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. Fashion critics have agreed that women in the larger cities are usually more attractively shod than women in the smaller towns. There is reason for this. The former avoid the old fashioned idea of taking shoes home on approval. They get a proper fit at the store from the shoe salesman, allowing this expert fitter to judge as to the proper size. Any woman who insists on getting a proper fit in a Queen Quality shoe is sure to have an attractive foot, whether fitted in small towns or the larger cities. Sellick's is the Paw Paw agency.

Two Political Meetings.

Professor Ferris, democratic candidate for governor, spoke in the opera house Friday evening, and was greeted by a fine audience. He confined himself entirely to state issues—principally "primary reform" and the "machine." He is an entertaining speaker, but failed to arouse any great amount of enthusiasm. T. J. Cavanaugh presided. After the meeting, a reception was given Mr. Ferris at First National hall.

Saturday evening Congressman Wm. Alden Smith of Grand Rapids spoke in the same hall from a republican standpoint. He addressed a crowded house and made one of the best political speeches heard in Paw Paw in a long time. His address was largely along national lines, although state issues were not neglected. Mr. Smith made it plain that he has not changed his ideas on primary reform, as charged by Mr. Ferris, and he has never favored doing away with the state conventions. Mr. Smith, in common, we believe, with the vast majority of the people, has more confidence in getting satisfactory primary legislation through the republican party, the party of construction, than through the democratic party, the party of opposition. Mr. Smith aroused much more enthusiasm and received much more liberal applause than did Mr. Ferris.

Circuit Court.

The October term of the circuit court began last Monday, Judge Carr presiding. The following business has been transacted:

Bertha Martin vs. Judson J. Moses et al. and Edgar W. Wahl vs. Frank Heffner; order for security for costs in each case.

People vs. John Jones, sodomy, and people vs. Louis Unrath, statutory rape; plea charged to guilty in each case.

People vs. Herbert Simpson, assault and battery and People vs. Clyde Stanley, larceny; both dismissed on motion of prosecuting attorney.

The following persons were arraigned and pleaded guilty: Charles Allison, felonious assault; J. S. Alier and Ed. Payne, maintaining games of chance; Charles Edgell, violation local option law; Joshua Stiller, larceny.

The following persons were arraigned and pleaded not guilty: Benj. F. Bayles, assault with intent to commit the crime of murder; Allie Leslie, assault with intent to rape; George H. Terry and Maggie Cowell, adultery; John Rooney, violation local option law; John Adler, resisting an officer; Caroline Adler, indecent exposure; L. A. Leighton, violation of liquor law. The plea in the last case was entered by order of the court, the respondent standing mute.

Bond estreated in two cases against William J. Remus for violation of local option law, each for second offense.

The following cases were continued: Paw Paw Fruit Growers' Union vs. South Haven & Eastern R. R. Co., James C. Worthington vs. Crescent Park Co., Charles Cohn vs. Casper Oppenheim.

B. F. Hecker was appointed to defend the Adler cases, A. Lynn Free the Terry Cowell case and Glenn Warner the Leslie case. This latter case was tried and resulted in a verdict of guilty. This was young Warner's first case and he acquitted himself very creditably indeed.

Decrees of divorce were granted to Dora L. Peacock and Flora Bush. Decrees in favor of complainants were granted in the cases of Thomas Robbins vs. Charles Thompson and Catharine Kirkham vs. James Richards. An order for discharge of mortgage was entered in the case of William E. Price vs. Michael O'Rourke.

The case of the people vs. Julius Winkie, assault with intent to murder, is now on trial.

Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by Longwell Bros.

The fact that many of the workers in the Republican ranks throughout the state were found to be lined up for Mr. Warner for governor, has given rise to the charge that he was in the hands of the "machine." There is nothing further from the truth. The fact is that these workers were brought in by Mr. Warner instead of the workers bringing him in. He made his own canvass, and by his good fellowship and clean record won his own nomination.—Judge Lamb, Cadillac.

The Democratic war cry to Democrats in this campaign is "Vote 'er straight," while to Republicans they dishonestly talk non-partisanship, but the game won't work.

Many Mothers of a Like Opinion
Mrs. Pilmer of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to croup of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly always brought relief. Many mothers in this neighborhood think the same as I do about this remedy and want no other kind for their children." For sale by Longwell Bros.

A Dozen Times a Night.

Mr. Owen Dunn of Benton Ferry, W. Va., writes: "I have had kidney and bladder trouble for years and it became so bad that I was obliged to get up at least a dozen times a night. I never received any permanent benefit from any medicine until I tried Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles, I am cured." Martin & Showman.
